Oh, do you remember a long time ago
 Two babes in the woods, their names I don't know,
 Were stolen away one bright summer day
 And lost in the woods, I heard people say.

And when it was night so sad was their plight,
 The sun went down and the moon gave no light.
 They sobbed and sighed, they bitterly cried.
 Poor babes in the woods, they laid down and died.

And when they were dead, the robins, so red
 Brought strawberry leaves and over them spread.
 And all the day long they sang their sweet song,
 Poor babes in the woods, to heaven they've gone.
